

HRCSL opens its doors to School pupils from the Evelyn's Academy School

On Friday 15th November 2019 the Human Rights Commission of Sierra Leone hosted JSS pupils from Evelyn's Academy School during their School's visitation.

This school set aside this period within their school calendar year to embark on field trips to key government institutions and in the process gain knowledge on their work and how it could affect them as children and the country as a whole.

The pupils were received by the Acting Executive Secretary Frederick Kamara and was taken through the mandate and functions of the commission and some basic rights by the Director of Education, Communication and Training, Richard Tamba M'bayo.

The Pupils were given a tour of the commission's facility.
