

The attention of the Human Rights Commission of Sierra Leone (HRC SL) has been drawn to a social media post making the rounds stating that Mr Mohamed Kamarainba Mansaray is dead. The Commission wishes to inform the public that the said post was never authored by HRC SL and that whoever tagged it to such post is only being mischievous.

The Commission has not received any such information from the relevant authorities regarding Mr. Mansaray who is currently serving his jail term at the Freetown Male Correctional Center.

HRC SL encourages the public to always refer to its website (www.hrc-sl.org) and social media handles for factual information and the activities it undertakes.
