

Kalie Silla – Director of Monitoring and Research

Kalie Silla is a strong researcher and have wide range of experience in researching skills and methodologies. He is an enthusiastic postgraduate and professional with a mixture of academic and operational experience in the fields of Human Security, Governance Early Warning, Human Rights, Conflict Prevention, Peacebuilding, Transitional Justice, Researcher as well as monitoring and Evaluation with more than seven years of progressive field experience. A bilingual (French and English) and a PHD Candidate in the field of Post conflict reintegration Case Study of Sierra Leone (suspended).

He served as a former Senior Researcher with WANEP demanding the job to travel across the West Africa sub-region to monitor, evaluate and advice at the local offices on Research, Monitoring and Evaluation.

He was the leading Researcher for the West Africa perspective of WANAP Nairobi Peace Initiative (NPI). He is an independent Consultant works for West Africa Human Rights and democratisation programme (WAHRD) Burkina Faso, Ivory Coast, Guinea, Sierra Leone, Liberia and Ghana, MRY Community facilitator Mano River Basin Sub-Region.

Until he became the First Director of Monitoring and Research on the 1st June, 2011.