

Mustapha M. K. Sesay – Director of Education, Communication and Training (DECT)

Mustapha M. K. Sesay served as Assistant Secretary General and later the National Secretary General of the Sierra Leone Association Journalist (SLAJ). He has Higher Teachers Certificate in Secondary Education and a Bachelor in Education degree from Milton Margai College of Education and Technology (MMCET). He also holds Master in Art degree in Mass Communication at Fourah Bay College, University of Sierra Leone. Since he graduated he was a teacher and Journalist as well as Human Rights Activist. He has vast knowledge and skills in strategic media management, project writing and implementation.

Until he became the Second Director of Education, Communication and Training on the 3rd October, 2011.